

Imperial Decree #1

Twelvth Of May, 2026 CE

On the Status Of Religion

I, Ipas Aster Irving of the Sutton Empire, hereby declare that the State and the Church, as well as all other religious institutions, may be endorsed by the power of either the Executive Council or Myself. However, they, the aforementioned religious institutions excluding its members, may not actively participate in Sutton Administration.

HOWEVER, I acknowledge that there will be religious individuals who wish to participate in Sutton Politics. They are permitted to enter Sutton Politics, given that they are citizens of the Empire as defined by the Constitution.

BY my power and right as the ruling Ipas, I declare the above a part of the Law of the Land.

Ipas Aster Irving
